EPHENSON-McLAUGHLIN.

"Crest," the home of Mr. Solon H. Moore, Stuart's Virginia, Wednesday evening, December 29, 1920, at 7:30 was the scene of a beautiful wedding, when their sister, McLaughlin, became the bride of the Rev. Homer Stephenson, V. McLaughlin, D. D., of the First Baptist Church, and cousin of the Rev. H. M. Stephenson, officiating ministers.

OLD STAGE STANDS.

Here is a list of the old stage stands between Lewisburg and Charleston on the James River and Kanawha Turnpike, all of which enjoyed a reputation more than local. Some of them, as for instance the Mountain-Stone House kept by Francis Tyree, at the foot of Big Sewell, were quite famous. Henry Clay, Andrew Jackson and other distinguished men of antebellum days were patrons of these stands, and at nearly all of them.

Mrs. William Thompson, Thursday of her home, a husband's burial was a date. Decem being highly knew her.

ern Kentucky. Shot at from annual and in hand-to-hand combat scores of times with the McCoy, he had always predicted he would live to die a natural death, as he now has at the age of 81 without bearing any marks of battle. He had a reputation as a crack shot that was known throughout the mountainous region of the two States, and at the age of seventy he could shoot a squirrel out of the talkest timber. He often favored the trick for scholars, with the old rule that he carried ready for action at all hours, and with which during the early eighties, he would shoot on sight any member of the McCoy family.

The celebrated feud of the Hatfield family with the McCoy's was started over some hogs, one of the Hatfields winning a lawsuit that was brought to determine their ownership. Soon after that a brother of "Devil Anse" was shot and wounded in more than fifteen places by one of the McCoy's. The feud then started and did not end until the few remaining McCoy's went over into Kentucky, where they now reside.

"Devil Anse" had none of the attributes of the "bad man" in his character. He always was recognized as a loyal friend of the many with whom he was acquainted.
Numbered among those who, believed he had been, right in the position he took during the feud days, were the late Judge John J.
Jackson known as the "Iron Judge"

He was a kinsman of ex-Governor Hartsfeld now of Huntington.

SAFES RECOVERED FROM DEBRIS.

MILLIONS FOR MINGO STRIKERS.

To carry to a finish the strike of union coal miners in Alabama and the fight against what is termed "the lockout" in Mingo county, West Virginia, the United Mine Workers of America has sent letters to the 4,000 local unions in the country levying an assessment of one dollar a month for two months on the entire membership numbering 553,000, according to an announcement made at the international headquar- ters at Indianapolis, Indiana. About 50,000 persons in the two fields are being supported by the international union, which up to January 4th had expended $1,345,000 out of its treasury for this purpose.

Wm. Green, International Secre- tary, and Treasurer of the organiza- tion, said the assessment would raise approximately $1,000,000, all of which would be used for the re- lief of these men and their families.

WOMEN IN WEST VIRGINIA NOT ELIGIBLE.

Women are not eligible to serve as jurors in West Virginia under existing laws, Attorney General E. T. England stated February 2d when his attention was called to a report that the Circuit Court at Williamson which is trying the Matewan battle cases, was considering the possibility of summoning women and negroes for jury duty.

On the other hand, there is nothing on the statute books of the State to prevent the summoning of negroes for jury service, the attorney general said.

Leading Charleston attorneys agree with the attorney general that women are not eligible for jury service according to their opinions as expressed.

CONTRACTOR KILLED AT CASS.

James Persi, one of our most valued Italian citizens, came to his death at Cass Thursday, Feb. 10 by a pistol shot from the hands of Nuzzareno Cincilla, an Italian laborer, says the Times. Persi, who was a contractor, walked from his home on Deer Creek to Cass to visit Marco Archangelo, a countryman. It was while there, Cincilla, whose nick-name is "Jumbo," so called because of his great size, entered the house and made a demand on Persi of some kind, the exact nature of which is not known, but it is believed to be something that Persi resisted, for the men got into a struggle at once, and Persi, who was a very strong man himself, forced the intruder to the door of the house. Jumbo drew a knife but that was taken away from him, and he quickly drew a revolver and shot Persi through the stomach from which wound Persi died the next day at the Marlinton hospital. After leaving the house Jumbo shot at three Italians walking by the house, getting Sazio Bea through the leg. Jumbo then ran to the river and threw his pistol in the

After leaving the house Jumbo shot at three Italians walking by the house, getting Socio Rea through the leg. Jumbo then ran to the river and threw his pistol in the water.

The following morning Jumbo ate his breakfast at a place on the North Fork of Anthony's Creek 35 miles as the crow flies, and then continued his flight, but the fate of a killer was on him, walking in the forest without a guide, he moved in a circle, and by night he was back at Casa, from whence he had started. It is quite possible that he walked over a hundred miles in 24 hours. Anyway he was scratched and bruised and his feet are so swollen that he can not stand on them. He was captured without difficulty.

Persi leaves a wife (a West Virginia girl) and four small children.

STILLS SEIZED AND DESTROYED.

Federal prohibition enforcement agents in Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky and North Carolina under supervising revenue agents, S. R.
Brame, seized and destroyed a total of 1,084 illicit distilling plants during the month of January. They seized 2,287 gallons of liquor, made 296 arrests, and confiscated property worth $96,835. In addition, twelve automobiles, several horses and one boat were seized and a total of 207,517 gallons of mash was destroyed.

RAIDS WITHOUT WARRANTS VOID.

Evidence obtained by revenue agents in raids conducted without search warrent, cannot be admitted in court proceedings, the Supreme Court ruled February 28th, in setting aside the conviction in South Carolina of Lawrence Amos.

Amos was convicted of removing distilled spirits on which the taxes had not been paid to a place other than a distillery warehouse and of concealing such spirits. In appealing to the higher court he alleged that the fourth and fifth amendments of the Federal Constitution had been violated when Federal officers searched his house without a warrant.

MAYOR KILLS GRIDIRON STAR.

William Johnson, McDowell county road supervisor, was shot and fatally wounded on the 2nd by Mayor John Whitt, at Welch, in a quarrel over personal affairs, according to Sheriff William Hatfield, of McDowell. Mayor Whitt is in jail charged with the killing, Hatfield said, but is expected to give bond.

Johnson was shot twice, once in the leg and once in the right side. The bullet that entered his side proved fatal, as it entered the vital organs.

Johnson was an ex-soldier, having served as a Lieutenant in France and came of a prominent family.

He was a member of the West Virginia University football team last fall and while on this team gained peculiar fame as a field goal kicker.

AN ANTI-LYNCH LAW.

House Bill No. 270 now before the Legislature provides penalties for the crime of lynching, designating it as murder and punishable as such. The bill also provides that every county in which a lynching occurs shall be subject to a forfeiture of $25,000, which may be recovered by action thereof in the name of the personal representative of the person put to death.

here—various indictments being against them in the Circuit Court of Morgan County and transferred to the Circuit Court of Greenbrier for trial—and were duly recognized to appear in Court here on the 25th day of May next for trial.

In all there are seven cases—four charging misdemeanor and three charging felony—growing out of the now famous battle at Madsen in which Mayor Trishman, a number of the detectives and some officers were killed.

The seven men above named, excepting T. L. Felt, who is charged with the others, with misdemeanor in two cases, while the six are charged with felony in three cases.
Others—Walter Sharp, Lawrence Rutherford, Calvin Brachman and G. W. Mass, are charged with misdemeanor in two cases.

Many attorneys and witnesses
are expected here on May 24th.

Judge Sanders and Mr. Avis will appear, as we understand, in defense of the accused men while our Prosecutor, Mr. Austin, assisted, no doubt, by attorneys from other counties, will represent the State.
Judge Sharp will preside.

here—various indictments found against them in the Grand Court of Mingo County and transferred to the Circuit Court of Greenbrier
for trial—and were duly recognized
to appear in Court here on the 24th
day of May next for trial.

In all there are seven cases—
four charging misdemeanor and three charging felony—growing out of the now famous battle at Matewan in which Mayor Testerman, a number of the detectives and some others were killed.

The seven men above named, excepting T. L. Felts, who is charged with the others, with misdemeanor
in two cases, while the six are charged with felony in three cases, others—Walter Stacey, Lawrence Butherford, Cabin Houchins and G. W. Mays, are charged with misdemeanor in two cases.

Many attorneys and witnesses
are expected here on May 24th.

Judge Sanders and Mr. Ayva will appear, as we understand, in defense of the accused men while our Prosecutor, Mr. Austin, assisted, no doubt, by attorneys from other counties, will represent the State.
Judge Maup will preside.

THAT MATEWAN VERDICT.

That big trial down in Mingo county that has been going on since January 26th. came to an end Monday of this week when the jury returned a verdict of "Not Guilty," just as this paper forecasted weeks ago when we said there was no doubt about the guilt of the men but we did not believe that any jury in that section would find them guilty. In fact they dare not do so they would have to leave the country or be in great danger of their lives if they remained. Now that heroes have been made out of the gunmen down there who shot and killed ten men in cold blood one day last May we suppose the lawlessness will keep on in that section and perhaps get worse so that no property or lives will be safe and capital would be very foolish to invest in that country. In addition to all this it is a black-eye to the State of West Virginia abroad and it will be many years before we recover from it.—Randolph Enterprise.

In reviewing the verdict in the Mulewan trials one notes this result: There was shooting between two opposing parties. Of the members of one of the parties, they are nearly all dead on the one side and all acquitted on the other. It was a very remarkable battle. One side to the fight was practically wiped out. Some one killed them; those that slew them could not be innocent of blood shedding; they could not be exonerated from the penalty of killing if they could show that they had been attacked.

The evidence was conflicting and much of it was not above suspicion. That twenty-six men could be put on trial and all be set free when the facts of the killing were so plain, is not understandable any than that all those who were killed were guilty.

We need disarmament in Mingo

And this Legislature cannot do more for West Virginia than to adopt vigorous measures without

The Pocahontas Times says: A decided effort is being made by the citizens of Huntersville District to secure the services of Dr. Raymond B. Lockridge, to return and take up the work of his father, the late Dr. J. B. Lockridge. In reply to the petitioners he says he feels no higher tribute could be paid him nor one he appreciated more highly than to be asked to take up the yoke so suddenly laid down by his father. He has the matter under consideration and will be in West Virginia soon, and talk over the matter with those who desire his return.

BOYS PUT UNDER BOND.

At the Prothonotary Court Judge S. H. Sharp had before him (Arthur Roberts, Lawrence McCune, Junior Adams, Robert Walker, Raymond Dunn, Carl Kirsch, Carl Degler, Carl Houchins, Dave Wilson, Elwood Ruby, and Clarence Tibbs, reduced, all of them boys of sixteen to eighteen years of age, who had been convicted or had confessed to various crimes. The Court paroled them rather than send them to prison. They were placed under heavy bond, and must report regularly to the Court; they must attend Sunday School regularly; work steadily at some honest employment and must keep away from moving picture shows and not loaf or loiter around pool rooms. They are thus bound until they are 21 years of age. This is a merciful and we imagine, a wise decision in a most perplexing situation. If there is a spark of manhood in any of these young fellows, they are given an opportunity to let it work out and develop into good citizens.

An outstanding feature of this term of court has been the number of young men who have been before the court as defendants in indecency and lewdness cases. Also the youth of many of the witnesses.

The Supreme Court Stated on Monday that the act under Senator Truman H. others others were corrupt practices in Primary election in 1918, fined and sentenced, reverse of the lower court, the convicted men.

The court was reversing the convicted five to four as of the law. Chief and Associate Justices and Brandeis dissented, finding the court's finding the without power to primaries, but even which, they have been based on trial judge's jury.

COMBINATION OF TWO FRENCH WORDS.

Ronceverte is a combination of two French words, ronce which means brier, and verte, meaning green. So the town has the same name as the river and the county. The county of Greenbrier was named after the principal river of that section in the early days, and the river was known as the "Weotowe" by the Miami Indians and as the "One-a-pake" by the Delaware Indians. The Greenbrier river is declared to be "one of the most beautiful mountain streams in the world" by William H. Sawyers, of Hinton, who also boasts that it is "larger than the Jordan river."

BILLY SUNDAY AT BLUEFIELD.

Sunday, May 8th, was Billy Sunday's first day at Bluefield and the Telegraph says the total number of those who crowded their way into the Tabernacle to hear the famous evangelist, morning, afternoon and night, was in excess of 16,000.

The morning crowd was estimated at 5,000, the afternoon at 4,000 and the night meeting 7,000 or more. Three times Billy Sunday preached and each sermon saw him increase his vehemence until at night he was pouring forth his denunciation in red-hot diction that scared its way through petty camouflage and laid bare sin in the high places as well as the lowest, leaving no opportunity available for a misconstruction and putting the ages-old, yet ever-new gospel in box car letters in front of his auditors.

A HUNG JURY.

Brown Galford, who shot and killed Geo. W. Duncan on the street in Marlinton on the night of Nov. 11, 1919, faced a jury for the second time last week in the Randolph County Circuit Court at Elkins, to which Court the case had been transferred on a change of venue. Galford, who was Town Sergeant at Marlinton, was first tried in the Pocahontas County Circuit Court, convicted of second degree murder and given fifteen years. The Supreme Court granted him a new trial and on account of the feeling against him in Pocahontas county the change of venue was granted.

On the trial in the Circuit Court of Randolph last week the jury hung and was discharged. We presume the case will be tried again at the next term of the Court.

NOT ENFORCEABLE.

The provisions of Governor Morgan's martial law in Mingo county cannot be legally enforced, the Supreme Court ruled in the habeas corpus proceedings of A. D.
Lavinder, an organizer of the United Mine Workers of America.

Martial law the ruling said, is incident only to military occupation.
There is no military occupation in Mingo county and hence the terms of the Governor's martial law cannot be enforced.

The decision means the release of scores of persons being held in the Mingo and McDowell county jails on charges of violating martial law, it was said by counsel for the petitioners.

The question for the court to decide, according to Judge Poffenberger, was not whether or no the Governor was justified in proclaiming martial law under the existing conditions. "It is not our right to say whether martial law was proclaimed wisely or not. The Governor does have the power and anth-ority to substitute military rule for civil rule."

Judge Miller dissented.

JURORS TO GET MORE PAY.

Grand and Petit Jurors may receive as much as $3.50 per day in addition to the usual mileage under the provisions of a bill passed at the recent session of the Legislature. The measure fixes the minimum pay at $2 and the maximum at $3.50, the amount to be fixed by the court.

It is provided that grand jurors shall not be paid for more than four days' service at any one term of court, except in the counties of Harrison, Kanawha, McDowell, Fayette, Cabell, Marshall, Marion, Mercer, Wood, Ohio, Mingo, Monongalia, Preston and Summers, where they may be paid for as many as ten days.

A further provision of the bill makes it mandatory that the maximum fee of $3.50 be paid to petit jurors who serve at any trial of a men to market their roosters, the local produce houses have offered a special price for them during the week.

PREACHER CONFESSES AND FLEES.

The Rev. F. T. Roberts, a self-confessed thief for nine years a popular pastor, has departed for Canada on an enforced vacation with his wife and 15-year-old daughter, it was learned at Randolph, Wisconsin. Mr. Roberts' confession came after circumstantial evidence pointed to his connection with a long series of thefts from the tills of the village stores, police said. To the deacons of the Welsh Presbyterian Church he admitted that he had taken the money while left alone in the stores by proprietors who trusted him. The amount was trivial, the police said.

WIFE-BEATER FLOGGED.

In his Court at Santa Ana, California, on June 29th, Justice B. Cox introduced flogging as a penalty for wife-beating. He laid Juan Torres three times on the back with a horsewhip. Wounds were raised on the man's back.

The punishment was inflicted after Torres had pleaded guilty to the charge preferred by his wife.

"If you think I should receive the same treatment I gave my wife, it is agreeable to me," said Torres when Cox suggested that he should be horsewhipped. The justice accepted the challenge, and told the prisoner to take off his coat. Then he administered his own sentence.

STILL FIGHTING MARTIAL LAW.

Efforts of the United Mine Workers of America to fight Governor Morgan's martial law for Mingo county to the "last ditch" where partially successful when Harold Houston, counsel for the union, obtained from the Supreme Court of Appeals an order to show cause why a writ of habeas corpus should not be issued against Major Thomas B. Davis, acting Adjutant General and the other officers enforcing the Governor's edit, to release from custody the eleven union officials arrested on the charge of assembly in a raid at Williamson Friday afternoon the 8th.

MARTIAL LAW VALID.

Governor Morgan's martial law proclamation in Mingo, since organization of the militia there, was upheld on Friday, the 15th, by the Supreme Court and acts of Major Davis in arresting certain officers of the United Mine Workers for unlawful assembly is thus declared legal. In a conference between Major Davis and State mine worker officials a compromise was reached whereby David Robb, international financial agent, John Brown and Robert Gilmore, members of the international board of organizers, left the State and another organizer is to go. The mine workers claim they will appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court.

With the roar of "six guns" echoing in their ears and with powder smoke eddying around their heads, Sid Hatfield, former police chief of Matewan, and Ed Chambers, a store keeper of the same place, died on the Court House steps at Welch, McDowell county, at 10:35 o'clock Monday the 1st inst, as they were entering the building for the trial of Hatfield, charged with the shooting up of Mohawk, McDowell county, about a year ago.

Five men were held in connection with the shooting, but Prosecuting Attorney G. L. Counts, of McDowell county, stated that afternoon that he expected the investigation of the shooting, which has been started, would narrow the list to C. E. Lively and Buster Pence.

Hatfield and 19 others had been indicted in the criminal court of McDowell county charged with shooting up the town of Mohawk about a year ago and the trial had been set for that morning and Hatfield and Chambers were there to attend the trial.

about a year ago and the trial had been set for that morning and Hatfield and Chambers were there to attend the trial.

Accompanied by their wives, Hatfield and Chambers walked from the hotel to the Court House and as they ascended the steps leading to the Court House yard the shooting took place. There were a number of men sitting at the top of the steps among them five Baldwin-Felts detectives, of whom was C. E. Lively, who posing as a miner, joined the union and secured evidence used in the trial of last spring at Williamson when Hatfield and others were tried for killing Albert Felts at Matewan in a street battle in which 10 men were killed. Hatfield, it is said had threatened to kill Lively on sight and when he saw Lively it is claimed he drew his pistol and the shooting began.

There were a number of people near, but the firing was over in half a minute and Chief of Police Mitchell, of Welch, who was just across the narrow street rushed forward and found that the guns of both Hatfield and Chambers had been used. Five Baldwin-Felts men were on sight and when he saw Lively it is claimed he drew his pistol and the shooting began.

There were a number of people near, but the firing was over in half a minute and Chief of Police Mitchell, of Welch, who was just across the narrow street rushed forward and found that the guns of both Hatfield and Chambers had been used. Five Baldwin-Felts men were arrested and after an investigation, three were released, C. E. Lively and George Buster Pence being held.

Mrs. Hatfield and Mrs. Chambers declared that the Baldwin-Felts men fired first. The Felts' men said that Hatfield fired first. The police chief did not see which opened fire.

This seems to be a much disputed question, Lively, says one report, claims that he saw Hatfield drawing his pistol before he (Lively) fired.

Sid Hatfield was only 26 years old but was well-known along the West Virginia-Kentucky border.
From the testimony heard in his trial last spring at Williamson on the charge of killing Albert Felts, in the Matewan battle of May, 1920, many believe that he killed Mayor Testerman that day in order to marry his widow which he did a week or two after Testerman's death.

MARTIAL LAW WILL CONTINUE FOR TIME

LAWLESSNESS IS DECREASING IN Mingo COUNTY UNDER MILITARY RULE.

Reports from Mingo county last week state that the condition of lawlessness and disorder which has long been a reproach to the State of West Virginia is being rapidly checked under the rule of martial law inaugurated by Governor Morgan, as enforced by the West Virginia State Police under the direction of Major Thomas B. Carr, acting adjutant-general. It is believed, however, that martial rule will continue until the district is entirely quiet.

With the decision of the supreme court upholding the proclamation of martial law, the task of the authorities has been greatly simplified. Under this ruling the military authorities have jurisdiction and power to enforce order and proceed against persons tending to disorder.

A census of the last collection of Mingo census taken by Capt. J. R.
Brinkman of the state police, shows that there are 111 men, 294 women and 797 children resident in these colleges. Of course of Major Harris and who were understood to have been active in fomenting trouble, have

JAIL IS FULL.

The Mercer county jail is so full that when defendants in liquor cases are found guilty instead of putting them in jail to serve their sentences they are, if able, permit-

SECOND TRIAL FOR MURDER.

The second trial of Jan. Hayes was the charge of murdering "Black" Bill McLaughlin near Ashbury, on March 1, 1907. It is set for the first day of the November term of the Circuit Court, County Circuit Court, which opens on a number 11th. Hayes was tried at the first trial, the jury being unable to reach a verdict. There is an error in the calendar for trial of the second term, the defendant being Arthur Ingram. There are 16 felony cases on the calendar for trial and 11 misdemeanor cases. Two newspaper cases, several appeal cases and 16 divorce cases.

Judge Sharp has directed that a jury be summoned from Monroe county to try Jan. Hayes, and the following is the venire of thirty summoned.

Sam Porree, Carl Komer, Charles Hibbs and Mrs. Bradley, of Springfield district; G. L. Hedley, Walter Dunn, A. J. McCoy, A. H. Meadows, A. E. Smith and George W. McDonald, of Red Sulphur district; John Hinchman, M. E. Pitzer, C. C. Brown and James Dillon, of Wolf Creek district; W. W. Rave, Charles Hines, P. S. Hoover, J. H. Epling, J. A. Foster, Geo. H. CHARGES TREASON.

Asserting that members of the armed band of miners from Mar- met, Kanawha county which attempted to invade Mingo county, through Logan county, had subjected themselves to the charge of treason against the State of West Virginia, Harry Olmstead, Chairman of the labor committee of the Coal Operators' Association in the Williamson field, on the 29th, telegraphed President Harding a denial of charges made by John L. Lewis, President of the United Mine Workers, in asking federal authority to aid in the organization of a committee to arbitrate the alleged labor controversies in the coal fields of the State.

The war department has agents, aided by an army airplane, in the troubled zone instructed to ascertain the facts and keep the Department advised of what is going on.

INDICTED BY LOGAN GRAND JURY.

C. Frank Keeney, President of District 17, United Workers of America; Secretary Fred Mooney of the miners' union, and 322 others were indicted last Friday on charges of first degree murder by the special grand jury called to investigate the recent disorders of Logan county.

Approximately 266 more were indicted on charges of aiding an insurrection and pistol toting. The latter is also a felonious offense under the West Virginia law.

This has to do with the armed march through Kanawha and Boone counties some two or three weeks ago in which the total casualties during the week's fighting numbered about 12, including John Gore, Logan county deputy Sheriff, who,
with two companions, was killed on August 29th.

Shortly after the grand jury voted its indictments it filed into the chambers of Circuit Judge Robert Bland and made its report. The grand jury was dissolved at 3 o'- clock and Judge Bland immediately issued numerous capisuses for the arrest of the defendants named by the grand jury.

chambers in Circuit Judge Robert Bland and made its report. The grand jury was dissolved at 3 o'clock and Judge Bland immediately issued numerous capias for the arrest of the defendants named by the grand jury.

Under the West Virginia law, any peace officer may take into custody any person whose arrest is sought by the capias process.

The capias in each individual case will be sent for service to the sheriffs of Kanawha and Boone counties, in which a majority of the defendants reside. It is believed that the trials of the accused will be under way at the next circuit court term next month.

Keeney and Mooney, the State leaders of the mine workers, have been sought for the past three weeks by authorities all over the State, following their indictment at Williamson on charges growing out of a fatal shooting affray in Mingo county last May.

The murder indictment was in blanket form. It was based on an alleged violation of the Red Man act. The defendants are accused both as principals and accessories to the killing of Deputy Sheriff John Gore. The grand jury held that a "conspiracy to inflict bodily harm and punishment" had existed, and that as the result of such conspiracy Gore had come to his death.

HUNG JURY.

The trial of the case of State of West Virginia against Jasper Weiss and Robert Moore was on trial on the Circuit Court here the latter part of last week.

The interest of the State was looked after by Prosecuting Attor-ney A. M. Austin, and Frank Hill, of Parkersburg. The defense by L. S. McWhorter and T. N. Reed, of Hinton.

The evidence in the case was very strong, showing what was practically a premeditated murder. However, the jury failed to agree. Ten men on the jury stood for first degree murder, without recommen-dation, and two for murder in the second degree. After much delib-eration the ten men agreed to recom-mend life imprisonment with the hope of reaching a verdict, but the other two men would not meet them and a verdict was not reached and the jury was discharged Saturday.

These two men who thus hung the jury and put the State to the ex-pense of a new trial from some standpoint or other may have acted in accordance with their convic-tions, but we know of no one who heard the evidence at the trial but that was satisfied of the COLD-BLANKET NATURE of the crime, and that JUSTICE should have been met out to the defendants according to the law and evidence in the case.

that if we are to have law and

THE McDOWELL CASE.

Most of the time in the Circuit Court this week has been consumed in the trial of the State vs. John Collins, under indictment for felony growing out of the troubles in the shooting which took place at Mohawk, McDowell county, some time ago. It grew out of the same affair for which Sid Hatfield and Ed Chambers were connected and for which they were indicted and for which they were under arrest when shot in Welch a short time ago.

This case will take considerable time as there are many witnesses on both sides. It took some time to secure a jury. The examination of witnesses began Tuesday evening and if all witnesses are used it will take several days to get through with the trial. There being more than seventy-five witnesses in the case. The case is attracting but little attention in Lewisburg, there being but comparatively few in attendance upon court.

FOUR GUILTY.

The cases from McDowell county, transferred to this county for trial, charged with the shooting up of the Mohawk Coal Company property, in that place more than a year ago, were up last week for trial before the Circuit Court. All were convicted except two. The cases of John Collins and John Condit were tried. There were a number of witnesses and the testimony in the Collins case was very conflicting. In the Condit case no witness placed on the stand for the defense except the defendant himself and his testimony was that he was forced to join the people who marched on Mohawk against his will. The jury in each case found the defendants guilty. The Court sentenced them both to three years in the penitentiary. Exceptions were taken in each case and a day or two to prepare an appeal.

The appeal work of the Court was greatly retarded by reason of the intervention of these cases. An adjourned term will be held in November. The evidence of these cases had a tendency to indicate that there may have been considerable made up testimony. Coal operations, detective agencies and armed violence have resulted in bystanders. He is persuaded that their action was wrong in the troubled times of West Virginia, but no plan was ever made to right what was wrong by violating the law of the land. The violation was not to be tolerated. It should be reformed as fast as it can. The same matter with the Lawless have never make right but right is a mighty force for justice.

BILL SHIRTS LOSE FASHION

Pennsylvania wage earners have learned the folly of increasing their money in silk shirts, and according to the reports received from officials of the Treasury Savings Division in that State many of those who were spending their hard-earned cash for luxuries are now buying Government securities to be purchased for the same day that eventually comes in most of us. The State banking commissioner reports that deposits in the State for the fiscal year ending June 30, as compared with the previous year show an increase of $67,000,000. The increase in the number of savers by 100,000 indicates clearly that the people are turning from extravagance to thrift.

Go to any industrial center during the time when work was plentiful and wages high, and you could see the wage earner dressed in the the very best silk shirts and high-priced shoes. He was by no means cultivating the habit of thrift and saving but he was turning his money over to the man who was laying for him—waiting to sell him something he did not need, and take advantage of his weakness and get his money. The salvation of the laboring man—and any one else for that matter—is to cultivate the habit of thrift. To save and so come to possibly direct the investment of his savings. A program of this kind would end much all contentions and build a vast foundation.

MONROE JURY AGAIN.

Recent Circuit Clerk R. M. Hays phases received an order from Judge R. D. Bailey, of Mingo Circuit Court, and the approving order of Judge I. C. Herndon, of Monroe Circuit Court, directing the summoning of a venire of 50 citizens of Monroe county qualified for jury service to be used in the trial in Mingo Circuit Court of Reece Chambers and Fred Burgraff, who are indicted for the murder of J. W. Ferguson.
The members of the venire are to appear at Williamson to-day.

Chambers and Burgraff were brought to trial last month, a jury from Pocahontas county sitting in the case. But the jury failed to agree, and were discharged, after a week's ordeal, and hence the case must be tried again.

This will be the second jury Monroe county has been called upon to furnish in the murder cases growing out of the bloody industrial struggle in Mingo county, the first one being that of J. C. McCoy who was convicted last month of first-degree murder for the killing of Harry Stotson at Sprigg, and sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

THE CAMEL CASE

The cases from McDowell county on trial in the Circuit Court here were Monday, the 21st of November have resulted in the conviction of Steve Collins, Walter Aubrey, Lige Clark, Wm. Anthony, John C. McCoy and Bill Estep. These parties were tried jointly and the argument was concluded last Friday and the case given to the jury, which rendered a verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment.

Another jury was immediately secured to try jointly Langer Cline, John Seiber, Stark Coleman, John Landell, Neil Childers, Hester Belcher and William Scarborough. This case, as the other one, took up several days. The jury, in this case was composed of S. L. Carr, A. L. Calhoun, E. F. Calhoun, J. G. Wade, E. E. Richardson, Sam Tackwiler, Henderson Wickline, Tom Legg, Davis Lightner, Robert McClung and C. G. Lott.

The case was given to the jury Monday afternoon. The case was delivered to all the defendants except Lawver Cline, who was found not guilty by the jury. All the persons heretofore found guilty in these cases were sentenced by the Court from periods ranging from two to three years to the penitentiary. All the other individuals pending in the Court keep-coming out of this courthouse have been notified. This ends all the cases moved to this County from McPherson County. Judge Sharp has been commended by all for the fair manner in which he disposed with the business of these cases.

ELOPED WITH BOY.

A mother's hunt for her 15-year-old boy, somewhere on the outward trail with the woman of his choice—or possibly of her choice, for she's 27—was made public in Charleston last Saturday, when Mrs. Bertha Justice of 1209 Third avenue, spread through the city a handbill on

The following is a list of names of persons who have been elected to the office of Justice of the Peace for the year 1900. The names are given in alphabetical order of their surnames. The names of the persons who have been elected to the office of Justice of the Peace for the year 1900 are: J. A. Smith, J. B. Jones, J. C. Brown, J. D. White, J. E. Black, J. F. Green, J. G. Gray, J. H. Hall, J. I. Hill, J. J. Hunt, J. K. King, J. L. Lamb, J. M. Martin, J. N. Nash, J. O. Owen, J. P. Parker, J. Q. Quinn, J. R. Reed, J. S. Shaw, J. T. Taylor, J. U. Underhill, J. V. Vance, J. W. Walker, J. X. Xanthopoulos, J. Y. Young, J. Z. Zimmerman.

Abstract The purpose of this study was to determine the effect of a 12-week, low-intensity, supervised walking program on the physical and psychological health of sedentary, middle-aged women. The study was a randomized, controlled trial. The subjects were 40 sedentary, middle-aged women who were randomly assigned to either a supervised walking program or a control group. The walking program consisted of 12 weeks of walking, 3 times per week, for 30 minutes per session. The control group consisted of 20 women who did not participate in the walking program. The subjects were assessed at baseline and at 12 weeks for physical and psychological health. The physical health assessment included measures of weight, body mass index (BMI), waist circumference, and blood pressure. The psychological health assessment included measures of self-esteem, anxiety, and depression. The results of the study showed that the walking program had a significant positive effect on the physical and psychological health of the subjects. The walking program resulted in a significant decrease in weight, BMI, waist circumference, and blood pressure. The walking program also resulted in a significant increase in self-esteem and a significant decrease in anxiety and depression. The results of this study suggest that a 12-week, low-intensity, supervised walking program can improve the physical and psychological health of sedentary, middle-aged women.

ACQUITTED

C. E. Lively, "Buster" Perce and William Salters, charged with the killing of Ed Chambers at Matamor on the Court House steps at Waco's last August, were freed by the jury after 51 minutes of deliberation Sat urday night last. The case was given to the jury at 7:43 o'clock and at 8:34 they made their report to Judge James French Steadler. The defendants were held under the in dictment charging them with the killing of Ed Hatfield and gave bond with the same bondsmen as had been security on the first charge.

Chambers and Hatfield were kill ed on the steps of the same court house in which the trial was held, August 1st, and two of the defend ants, Lively, and Perce claimed that they did not draw their pistols un til after Hatfield and Chambers had begun firing, while Salters denied that he had fired at all. The prose cution presented witnesses who tes tified the first shots were fired from the top of the steps, where Lively, Perce and Salters were, and some of these identified Lively as the man who fired the first shot.

FIRE AT HUNTERVILLE

On Monday, the store of W. H. Barlow, at Huntersville, was destroyed by fire. The fire was discovered about one o'clock in the day, by smoke coming from the attic. There was no water under pressure by which the fire could be fought and it was soon seen that the building would be a total loss, and the neighbors present engaged in a salvaging the goods and contents. It was so well managed that a greater part of the goods were saved.

From this store building the fire spread to the profection which was in the rear of the burning store and which was kept in the building occupied by L. M. McClintic in the days when the court house was at Huntersville. This building was also burned but all the contents saved.

The Barlow store was one of the best known stands in this county. It was located at the forks of the road and it is the building in which Amos Barlow kept store for so many years, the business being continued by his son, the present owner, W. H. Barlow, the president of the County Court of Pocahontas county.

In 1852, a big part of the town of Huntersville was burned down the fire burning that portion of the town where the late fire raged.—Times.

BILLY SUNDAY TO BE AT BLUEFIELD.

Billy Sunday, the noted evangelist is coming to Bluefield.

Rev. Thomas S. Hamilton, pastor of the Bland Street Methodist Church, on December 30th, had a letter from the evangelist acknowledging receipt of the joint invitation extended him by the Chamber of Commerce and others to hold a four or five weeks meeting in Bluefield and saying he would accept.

While the dates are yet to be arranged for the meeting, it is an assured fact that the great evangelist will be in Bluefield some time during the coming year. In the letter the evangelist expressed the hope of coming to that city in April, but says that if the meeting cannot be arranged for that time he will come

AN IMPOSTER UNMASKED.

About two weeks ago a young fellow presented himself one afternoon at the Chestnut Grove school-house and introduced himself as a state supervisor of schools and giving his name as Lieut. Glenn Seeley virtually took charge of the school. That night he went home with one of the pupils, returning the next day and the day following, running the school and staying with the families of pupils. By Saturday he had progressed so far that he called a meeting of the school board by telephone. County Superintendent Houchins was notified and accompanied by Director Bowyer and N. J. Ratliff called on the fellow, soon found he was an imposter, and told him to "git." He "got." He is a deserter from the army, his name is Paris Kidd and his home is at Glenn Lynn, Va. Some think he adopted his role to get easy board, and others that he was sent to the school to annoy the teacher.—Harrison Advertiser.

WRECK IN GREENBURY DIVISION

A big rock weighing several tons sliding from a 30 foot bank above the track of the Greenbury division of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, six miles north of Martinsburg on Tuesday, April 23th, caused the derailment of the express, express car and also coach of Greenbury passenger train No. 114, northbound, and resulted in slight injuries to Express Messenger W. A. Stone and a traveling salesman Joseph Williams who was badly jolted upon his exit from one of the coaches.

The train did not run into the rock as at first reported, but was derailed because of the dislodging of the track by the weight of the rock falling against it and tearing it five feet out of alignment for a distance of 100 feet. The express and the express car turned over the embankment, where the coaches, including the one derailed coach, remained on the road bed and track. Mr. Williams, it is thought, slipped from the lower side of the car on the dislodgment of the track of passengers and fell among the rocks, striking his back. Other passengers and trainmen were only badly jolted. Mr. Stone had several ribs broken. The train was in charge of Capt. A. C. Harrison.

The engineer, Mr. Perkins, and the fireman, Mr. Robinson, both of Hagerstown, jumped from the engine before derailment, and escaped with but few scratches.

WAR TRUCKS FOR ROAD BUILDER

To day, the War Department turned over to the United States Department of Agriculture approximately 24,000 motor vehicles provided in compensation for war materiel. These vehicles are being distributed to the states for use in road building. The vehicles are being distributed to the states for use in road building. The vehicles are being distributed to the states for use in road building.

The state highway commissions are also interested in the allocation of tractors, dump locomotive engines, and cranes, industrial loads which remain to be disposed of by the war department.

COL. MCGRAW DIES SUDDENLY.

Col. John T. McGraw for many years, and at the time of his death, a member of the Democratic National Committee from this State, died suddenly late Thursday, April 29, 1920, of heart disease, on a train coming out from Baltimore while en route from New York to his home at Grafton. His age was 61 years. The news came as a dreadful shock to his many devoted friends throughout this and other States of the Union.

Col. McGraw had long been active and prominent as lawyer, banker, newspaper proprietor, coal operator, railroad promoter, general developer and politician.

He was born in Grafton in 1856, educated at St. Vincent College, Wheeling, and was elected prosecuting attorney of Taylor in 1880 when he first became active in politics. Gov. Jackson appointed him to a place on his personal staff and he so received the title of Colonel. He was several times a candidate for the U. S. Senate and more than once came near being chosen. He was always personally popular and true to his friends, he held them true to him to the end. He was a most companionable man—bright, intelligent, polite and always most agreeable.

It has been said that had Col. McGraw started his many big business projects some years later he would have been one of the wealthiest men in the State. As it was he became involved in debt and failed to realize the success he hoped for.

He had perhaps as many devoted personal friends as any man in West Virginia for he was, indeed, a most likeable man.

Col. McGraw was a great admirer and a warm personal friend of President Wilson who once visited him at his home. The President sent a message of condolence to Col. McGraw's aged mother, and also sent a magnificent floral wreath for the casket.

A great crowd from far and near attended the funeral at Grafton Monday, conducted by eminent priests of the Catholic Church.

P. L. CLARK DEAD.

Preston L. Clark, one of the prominent citizens of Pocahontas county, died very suddenly and unexpectedly at his home near Hillsboro, Saturday June 12th, 1920. He was paralyzed. For years he had been in failing health. His age was 76 years. He was the last member of the family of the late Sheldon Clark, who came to Pocahontas from Connecticut about one hundred years ago. His mother's maiden name was Lightner. Burial at the family grave yard on Tuesday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. J. C. Johnson, of the Presbyterian Church, of which Mr. Clark had been a life long member. Thus we note the passing of a truly upright, honest man.

Mr. Clark is survived by his wife, who was a Miss Livesay, of Green-

MARTIAL LAW IN MINGO.

Mingo county where a strike of miners has been in progress since last July, was on Tuesday last the 29th, declared by Governor Corawell to be under military control or martial law.

Colonel Hernan Hall, Commanding the provisional battalion of federal troops about 500 strong, which arrived at Williamson Sunday from Camp Sherman, Ohio, issued a proclamation in which he forbade public assembly except such meetings as might be held in regularly organized churches.

Colonel Hall's proclamation prohibited also, parades or demonstrations against the authorities and stipulated that no person other than officers of the law and the military would be permitted to carry fire arms or be in possession of explosives. All places of business, shops and theatres were permitted to remain open. It was stipulated that the people generally were admonished to comply carefully with the military regulations and to preserve good order.

Governor Corawell's proclamation stated that Mingo county was in a state of insurrection and the citizens were enjoined and com-manded to disperse and retire to Governor Cornwell's proclamation stated that Mingo county was in a state of insurrection and the citizens were enjoined and commanded to disperse and retire to to their homes, and submit to the law and the regularly constituted authorities.

"To the end that the law shall be respected and that disorder shall cease, I have called upon the Government of the United States for assistance and until further notice the county of Mingo will be under the direct charge of the commanding general of the Fifth Army Corps area, who has full power and authority to establish peace and order in said county by such means as he may deem best in the interest of good government and the laws of the land."

This unfortunate situation in Mingo, so long continued, is due, as the Charleston Gazette sees it,
"to the apparently eternal strife in that section of the State between powerful elements seeking to organize the coal miners as union men and the coal operators determined to see that such an organization does not become a fact."

SUDDEN DEATH OF DR. LOCKRIDGE.

Dr. James Bedford Lockridge long a well known and highly esteemed physician of Pocahontas county, stopped over for the night on the 8th at the Hotel Greenbeker, Boncoveite, on his return from Fishersville, Va., whither he had gone to visit a sick grandchild. In his room in the hotel that night he was taken sick. A physician was called who reached him just before he died of a heart trouble from which he had suffered before. His body was taken to his home at Minnehaha Springs and laid in the family graveyard not far away. The Doctor was the youngest child of Col. James T. and his wife, Mrs. Lillie Moser Lockridge, both long prominent and well known in Pocahontas. He married 34 years ago, Miss Margaret E. Warwick, daughter of Squire John Warwick, who came to Pocahontas from Nelson county, Virginia. She with two daughters and five sons survive to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father. Dr. Lockridge was 58 years old, a member of the Episcopal Church, a useful man and an excellent citizen. He will be greatly missed.

MR. HANNAH DIES AT CASS.

Samuel Baldwin Hannah, for many years one of the prominent and most highly esteemed men of Pocahontas county, died at his home at Cass, that county, Wednesday Morning, January 19th, 1921, from the effects of an internal cancer which had gradually grown through many months. We think his age was about 77 years. We had known Mr. Hannah since his boyhood days when we attended the old Cab Creek School in Charlotte county, Virginia, back in the 50's. Born and reared in the same community, we were together at the V. M. L. H. 1843 from which Mr. Hannah graduated at the close of the session of that year, together as members of the Charlotte Troop, Company B, 14th Virginia Cavalry from February 1864 to the close of the war between States in April 1865, and together as members of U. C. V. Organization since the War.

Mr. Hannah came to Greenbrier back in the 70's and assisted the late Rev. Jos. H. Leps for several years in the conduct of a large school for boys and girls at Frankford.

Shortly after this he married Miss Lizzie Heavner, daughter of the late, well-known, Uriah Heavner, of Pocahontas county, and moved to the Ardavale community of that county where he lived un-

Mr. Hannah came to Greenbrier back in the 70's and studied the late Rev. Jas. H. Laps for several years in the conduct of a large school for boys and girls at Frankford.

Shortly after this he married Miss Lizzie Weaver, daughter of the late, well-known, Urush Weaver, of Pocahontas county, and moved to the Arbode community of that county where he lived until the death of his wife, a few years ago, when he took up his residence at Casa. He reared a large family of sons and daughters—one of them being now a well known physician, a member of the County Court of Pocahontas, and another a Presbyterian minister. He was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Hannah, of "Gravel Hill," Charlotte county, who were near kin to many of the most prominent people of that old county in which Patrick Henry and John Randolph lived and achieved great prominence and distinction in public life. From the old Cub Creek School somewhat noted in its day, Mr. Hannah entered Hampden-Sidney College where he was several years a student before entering the V. M. I. as a Second Chaplain in 1881.

GALFORD ACQUITTED.

At the Elkins Court last week, the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty in the case of Brown L. Galford, who was being tried for the killing of George W. Duncan. This case was taken to Randolph county from Pocahontas county. This was the third time the case was tried. The first trial at Marlinton resulted in a verdict of second degree murder, and a sentence of 15 years was imposed. The Supreme Court granted the defendant a rehearing. The second trial was at Elkins on a change of venue and the jury failed to agree on a verdict.

On the night of November 11, 1919 Brown L. Galford was a policeman of the town of Marlinton. He attempted to arrest George W. Duncan. Duncan resisted, and in the mixup he was shot and killed.

a single huge dormitory. Each cottage accommodates about twenty youngsters.

HER AIM WAS POOR.

Mrs. Wm. Sanford, of San, Fayette county, appeared at Mount Hope last Sunday night and declared she had killed her husband. She had fired five shots at him she claimed, and that he was dead. She wanted to give herself up.

Deputy C. E. Patton, of Scarbro, was called and he hastened to the scene of the shooting. He found William very much alive, however, as none of the shots had struck him. She had fired the five shots all right, but evidently did not have her shooting eye open, as all five shots missed.

Mr. Patton had a suspicion or two also of his in some matters and after an investigation he found about 30 gallons of mash in a closet of the Sanford home. Further investigation led to the discovery of a complete still hidden over a false ceiling in the closet.

SIAMSE TWINS DEAD.

Josefa and Rosa Blazek, two Czecho-Slovak twins, joined together at birth and known over the world as "the Siamese twins," died at a hospital in Chicago on March 30th. The death of Josefa occurred first and was followed in a few seconds by the death of her sister. Physicians had declared early in the night that in the event of the death of one of the sisters the other would also die soon afterwards, but their brother, Frank Blazek, had refused to permit an operation to sever their bodies. Rosa was a widow. She has a 12-year-old son, Fritz, who is a bright boy and perfect mentally and physically. The sisters were brought to this country for theatrical engagements.

These men are being tried in the old court house where John Brown was tried for treason before the Civil War.

CAREER ENDED.

The career of Sid. Hatfield, killed with his lieutenant, Ed. Chambers, on the steps of the court house a Welch last August, during a gun fight, was wound up last Monday when a jury in criminal court of McDowell county found three men, charged with his killing, not guilty.

Others were tried in January and found by the jury not guilty. The prosecuting attorney had these indictments dismissed. It will be remembered that Sid. Hatfield was tried for murder in Logan county several months before he was shot and found not guilty. Now all the men indicted for the killing of himself and Chambers go free. We know nothing of the merits of either side but it occurs that these people have license to shoot in these counties and none are convicted. When all are killed, peace may reign.
